

The American Society of International Law's
Law in the Pacific Rim Region Interest Group and Intellectual Property Law Interest Group cordially invite you to attend

Intellectual Property Rights in China: Reflections and Directions

WHEN: WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 2009
8:30am – 12:00pm

WHERE: THE FAIRMONT HOTEL
The Fairmont Hotel, Latrobe Room
2401 M St. NW
Washington, DC 20037

The Chinese intellectual property system has a short history of fewer than 30 years. This seminar will provide an opportunity to gather intellectual property experts to reflect on what China has done so far, to explore on-going tension areas, and to discuss where improvements will be made.

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Zhipei Jiang,

Retired Chief Justice of the IP Tribunal, Supreme People's Court of China

Moderators:

- Elizabeth Chien-Hale, Institute for Intellectual Property in Asia
 - John Thomas, Georgetown University Law Center

Panelists

- Alan Cox, NERA Economic Consulting
- Tracy Durkin, Sterne Kessler Goldstein & Fox
- Victoria Espinel, George Mason University
- James Feinerman, Georgetown University Law Center

This seminar will take place as a kick off event at the American Society of International Law's 103rd Annual Meeting on March 25, 2009 from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Registration for this seminar is free and open to the general public.