TEN STERNE KESSLER DIRECTORS NAMED IP STARS BY MANAGING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY MAGAZINE

Firm Recognized for Patent Prosecution, Patent Litigation, and Patent Office Litigation Work

WASHINGTON, DC – Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox P.L.L.C., an intellectual property law firm in Washington, DC, proudly announces that ten firm directors have been named “IP Stars” by Managing Intellectual Property's IP Handbook. Honorees included Biotech/Chemical Practice Group director Eldora L. Ellison, Ph.D.; Electronics Practice Group directors Lori A. Gordon, Michael Q. Lee, Michael B. Ray, Robert Greene Sterne, and Jon E. Wright; Litigation Practice Group directors H. Keeto Sabharwal and Mark Fox Evens; and Mechanical & Trademark Practice Group directors Tracy-Gene G. Durkin and Monica Riva Talley.

In addition to the individual recognition mentioned above, Sterne Kessler was nationally ranked for its work in Patent Prosecution, Bio Life Sciences, and Trade Mark Prosecution. Within the District of Columbia, the firm was also highly recommended in the areas of Patent Prosecution and Patent Contentious. Managing IP writes that "the firm is regarded as one of the country's preeminent reexamination practices," and is "generally regarded as second to none." Additionally, Sterne Kessler's patent office litigation practice is recognized as "primed to be a leader in the post-grant review procedures being practices at the USPTO."

The IP Handbook uses data from the 2014 World IP Survey, which covers over 80 countries. Employing a team of researchers across the globe, the survey sought responses from thousands of practitioners in multiple practice areas within IP law. The rankings were then devised based on the feedback received in each market. Through this process of peer opinion, market response and independent research, the World IP Survey strives to be the most comprehensive and authoritative survey of the IP legal market ever published.
