

Sterne Kessler to Send Delegation to Zambia with World Bicycle Relief

Washington D.C. (October 4, 2019) – Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox is excited to announce that on October 25th, a four-person delegation from the firm will be traveling to Lusaka, Zambia on a 10-day trip to present 150 “Buffalo Bicycles” to students at two schools the firm has adopted through a partnership with World Bicycle Relief (WBR). WBR specializes in large-scale, comprehensive bicycle distribution programs to aid poverty relief in developing countries. Our delegates are:

- Director, Tracy-Gene G. Durkin
- Foreign Filing Legal Assistant, Niki Camateros-Mann
- Associate, Trent W. Merrell
- Application Support Specialist II, Melissa Quick

While in Zambia, delegates will learn about the positive impact the bicycles have on education, healthcare, and economic development and see it firsthand through community site visits. Before their “day in the life” experiences with schools, caregivers, and dairy farmers, delegates will tour the World Bicycle Relief Assembly Plant and assemble the bicycles they will ride in the field.

Sterne Kessler’s support of WBR is a part of the firm’s philanthropic efforts that are global, legal, and local. We urge others to learn more about WBR and the impact the specialized “Buffalo Bikes” have on individuals, families, and communities.
