

Director Ivy Clarice Estoesta and Counsel Dana N. Justus Ranked as “Rising Stars” by Managing IP for the Fourth Consecutive Year

Washington, D.C. (October 10, 2022) – Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox is pleased to announce the inclusion of Director Ivy Clarice Estoesta and Counsel Dana N. Justus to Managing IP's 2022 “Rising Stars” list. This year marks the fourth consecutive year Estoesta and Justus have earned this recognition. Managing IP editors state that the “Rising Stars” special publication “recognizes some of the best up-and-coming intellectual property practitioners in private practice who contributed to the success of their firms and clients.”

Estoesta and Justus are members of Sterne Kessler's Trademark & Brand Protection practice, with Estoesta also belonging to the Mechanical & Design Practice Group. Estoesta's practice focuses on design patents, trademarks, and copyrights for companies in the pharmaceutical and consumer products space. Justus focuses on U.S. and international trademark clearance, prosecution, enforcement, and portfolio management for clients in a wide variety of industries. Both attorneys have been named Managing IP “Rising Stars” since 2019.

The “Rising Stars” publication follows Sterne Kessler's recognition in the individual attorney and firm “IP Stars” rankings. Read more about the “Rising Stars” publication and methodology here.
