

Sterne Kessler Secures PTAB Win on Behalf of Client RoboticVISIONTech

Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox secured denial of an inter partes review petition at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) on behalf of the patent owner RoboticVISIONTech, Inc. (RVT). RVT is a leading provider of 3D vision guided robotics software. The challenged patent, U.S. Patent No. 8,095,237, describes techniques for accurate three-dimensional object location and guidance to allow robotic manipulation of an object, regardless of the object's position and orientation, using only standard video equipment. Read the institution denial decision here.

The Sterne Kessler team representing RVT includes Directors Daniel Block and Michael Joffre, and Associate Steve Pappas. The case is IPR2023-01426, ABB Inc. v. RoboticVISIONTech, Inc. Sterne Kessler also represents RVT in a case in the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware against ABB Inc. ABB is accused of infringing RVT's intellectual property, including U.S. Patent No. 8,095,237. The case is RoboticVISIONTech, Inc. v. ABB Inc., Case No. 1:22-cv-01257 (D. Del.).