About the Managing IP Awards

The Managing IP Awards program is the most comprehensive and widely respected IP law firm awards event in the world. Now in its 16th year, the program covers a broad range of IP practice areas and more than 30 jurisdictions. Before compiling the shortlists, researchers evaluate the work data supplied by firms and, where applicable, reviewed publicly available information such as court and IP office records. The research for the Managing IP Awards program is rigorous and impartial. There is no fee to pay to participate in our research, and the awards are not influenced by any commercial relationship with Managing IP. Read about the practice areas at ipstars.com.
